ANNOUNCEMENT!! DR. JAEGER'S Sanitary Woolen System Co.

176 Fifth Ave., below 23d St.

JAEGER UNDERWEAR,

in which he sustains the DR. JAEGER COMPANY in its claim against the fraudulent use of the name "JAEGER." The Judge, in his decision, says as follows:

"The plaintiff's (the Dr. Jaeger Co.'s) right to use the name 'Jaeger' as designating underwear made in accordance with the Jaeger system is so unquestionably exclusive that its right to protection of its use against infringements by others rests upon the ground that such use by them is an untrue or deceptive representation. The application of the name 'Jaeger' or 'Jaeger System' to underwear containing an admixture of cotton is an untrue and deceptive representation, and against such use the plaintiff (the Dr. Jaeger Co.) is entitled to relief.

"The testimony shows that the plaintiff (the Dr. Jaeger Co.) has dealt only in underwear made of PURE FINE WOOL. The proofs show that the defendant (the 'Boothier Bros.') is now selling for 'genuine Jaeger underwear' goods that are part cotton.

"The amount of cotton used in the making of these garments has varied from a small percentage of cotton up to upward of 50 per cent. of cotton;" [which, as the Court correctly finds, cannot be distinguished from the all-wool garments, even by those who are daily handling the goods, because of the complete similarity in color and general appearance.]

"It is a false representation of fact, which tends to confuse the identity of the defendant's (the 'Boothier Bros.') goods, not made after the Jaeger system, with the goods of the plaintiff (the Dr. Jaeger Co.), made in accordance with that system, and creates a dishonest competition detrimental to the plaintiff.

"One of the uses by the defendant (the 'Boothier Bros.') of the name 'Jaeger' to designate underwear containing an admixture of cotton must be held to be for the purpose of taking advantage of the reputation which the all-wool 'Jaeger' goods have acquired, and of the name 'Jaeger' as applied thereto.

"The application of the name 'Jaeger' by defendant (the 'Boothier Bros.') to goods part cotton tends to deceive the purchasers and users of plaintiff's goods, and actually misled them into buying goods containing cotton sold by defendant in the belief that they were the goods dealt in by the plaintiff. Moreover, since the goods containing cotton can be profitably sold at a less price than the all-wool goods, the tendency must be to unfairly divert custom from the plaintiff to the defendant (the 'Boothier Bros.').

"Upon the grounds set forth, I hold that the plaintiff (Dr. Jaeger Co.) has shown the defendant (the 'Boothier Bros.') guilty of unfair competition in advertising and selling as 'genuine Jaeger underwear' underwear containing a substantial admixture of cotton, and that the plaintiff is entitled to an accounting, accompanied by an injunction."

In view of these facts it is idle to deny the substantial victory of the Dr. Jaeger Company in their efforts to protect the public against "dishonest competition."

Another decision in favor of the Dr. Jaeger Co. has just been rendered in the United States Circuit Court of California by the Hon. Judge McKenna, Circuit Judge. This decision reads as follows:

"Adjudged and decreed that the defendants be forever restrained from preparing, selling, or offering for sale any goods bearing or stamped with or advertised as 'Dr. Jaeger's,' or bearing any designation containing the words 'Dr. Jaeger' or 'Prof. Dr. Jaeger,' or the word 'Jaeger'; that the said defendants be also forever restrained from advertising in newspapers or elsewhere or in any way representing that the goods sold by them are 'Dr. Jaeger's' goods, or 'Dr. Jaeger's' underwear, or 'Prof. Dr. Jaeger's' goods, or 'Jaeger' goods."
